

Bank Marketing Prompt Cheat Sheet

AI drafts and detects. Marketing directs. Compliance approves. The source data proves.

Use this prompt frame

Role: You are drafting bank marketing copy for review, not final approval.

Source: Use only the product facts, offer terms, disclosures, audience limits, channel, and brand brief provided below.

Constraint: Do not invent rates, APYs, fees, eligibility, guarantees, deadlines, disclosures, competitor claims, or personalized advice. Mark uncertain items [VERIFY].

Output: Provide draft copy, claim checklist, disclosure questions, audience questions, and open [VERIFY] items.

Prompt examples

Product campaign

Draft email, landing-page hero, and branch flyer copy from these approved source terms. Flag every rate, APY, fee, deadline, and disclosure as [SOURCE CHECK].

Deposit education

Explain the account feature in plain language without quoting an APY unless one is supplied. Add questions compliance should verify.

Social post

Create three short posts from approved facts. No urgency, guarantees, or unsupported benefit claims. Include link/disclosure reminders.

Segment variant

Create variants for the approved segment only. Do not infer protected characteristics or eligibility. List segment-review questions.

Disclosure review

Compare draft copy to source terms. Return a table of claim, source support, required disclosure, [VERIFY] item, and reviewer note.

Executive report

Summarize campaign performance using supplied metrics only. Include complaint flags, compliance exceptions, and recommended next review.
